Description:

Toy Plane Heroes is a unique multiplayer dogfighting game in which you are controlling a toy plane. The game is made for VR and you are going to feel an incredible feeling of scale because you are a tiny toy figure. We currently support the Oculus CV1, DK2 and the HTC Vive. We are also planning to make TPH compatible with the most common HMD's.

Features in the early access Version

- Intense up to 4 vs 4 multiplayer action
- Singleplayer Campaign
- Made for virtual reality
- Aim with your head
- Collect cool Power Ups
- Airplane Racing
- Customizable Controls (Including Alpha HOTAS support)
- Experience scale
- Play with or against bots
- Level up and get new planes

Release:

Toy Plane Heroes has been released on Steam and Oculus Home and cost 9.99Euro/Dollar.

Planned Features

- Continuous releases of new maps, planes and weapons
- Support most common HMD's
- A lot more depending on the wishes of the community

About us:

Oasis VR is a small start up based in Germany. We are passionate gamers and Toy Plane Heroes is the kind of game that we've always wanted for VR. Even without financial success we will be trying to expand the game in the future.
